Q1. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow (4)

The crow is a common bird. It is found all over the world. The crow can eat anything. But it likes to eat the food man eats. It is an intelligent and clever bird. But it is also a thief. It is fond of stealing food. It builds its nest in the branches of tall trees. The nest looks ugly from outside, but inside it is cozy. The crow's eggs are bluish green in colour. They have brown marks on them. When baby crows come out of the eggs, both parents look after them.
